Thousands of Yards of Desirable PONGEES & SHANTUNGS In the February Silk Sale

The demand this season for the rough, stylish suiting silks is unusually large. It is more than fortunate, therefore, that the most considerable offerings in this February Sale of Silks are precisely of these most-wanted stuffs. We had, when the Sale began on Monday, seventeen thousand, two hundred and fifty yards of

Plain Domestic Pongees Genuine Chinese Shantungs and Rough Pongee Suitings

to offer, at prices a fourth to one-half less than regular values. And plentiful supplies still remain of each. These notable qualities:

Satin-faced Semi-rough Silk Suitings, $1 Yd. Almost identical, in every respect, except the name, with a famous silk selling at $1.35 a yard. In twenty-five light, medium and dark colors—a beautiful soft finish. 24 inches wide. $1 a yard.

Original "Mandarin" Silk Suitings 24-inch, at 78c a Yard, instead of $1.50 In the very smart heavy serge and diagonal effect already adopted in Paris and New York by the best dressmakers, for coat suits for Spring. In the newes shades, staple colorings, and plenty of the natural pongee color. 78c a yard.

All-silk Rough Pongee at 68c a Yard 27 inches wide, a handsome quality in good weight, thirty-seven desirable olorings. Regular $1 quality.

Rough Pongee Suitings at 78c a Yard 24 inches wide, a heavy quality of all-silk pongee, in light and dark staple shades. Regularly $1.25 a yard.

Natural-color Pongee at 95c a Yard An excellent domestic quality; 34 inches wide, natural color only. Reguarly $1.25 a yard.

Natural-color Chinese Shantung at $1 a Yard 33 inches wide-superb $1.50 quality; the best wearing silk in the world. First floor, Old Building.

Spring Suitings—Special at $1

Really $1.50 materials but priced at $1 a yard by reason of special purchase. They are 54 inches wide, all-wool, the correct weight for Spring and admirably designed for two-piece suits and odd skirts. Checks and stripes, in grays, tan, brown First floor, Old Building, Ready tomorrow. NOT on Sale today.

Something New in Cotton Voile Waists

Fresh, sheer, snowy white and lace-trimmed, these new arrivals are a joy to the eye. These danty waists are made in America, but were hand-embroidered by the skilled needlewomen of he Island of Madeira. They are $7.50 and $10.75 each. Waists of Embroidery at $6.50 Of all-over eyelet embroidery, the yokes of Valenciennes and mitation baby Irish laces, in pointed effect. Third Hoor, Old Building.

Women's Black Cotton Stockings, 25c The importer fondly hoped to get full price for these excellent stockings-which means that they should really sell for 35c a pair. But he brought over too many-so these are 25c a pair

Of fine gage, light-weight cotton, fast black, with garter tops, low spliced heels and double soles. Handsome stockings that are durable as well. 25c a pair. These goods ready tomorrow morning. Not on sale today. Main floor, Old Building.

St. Valentine had really nothing to do with these tender sentiments anonymously expressed-Juno had. At any rate, it is one ime during the year, at least, when Cupid officially scores over commonsense-and here is a whole quiverfull of his darts, blunt or pointed, as you choose. Some that are warranted to leave an absolutely new species of wound, too:

Valentines, pure and simple, 1c to $4. | Valentine Post Cards, 1c to 15c. And a choice little lot of Imported Mechanical Valentines for children. Valentines, hand-painted, in exclusive c to 60c; Jumping Jacks, 10c. designs, at $1.25 each. Book Store, Main floor, and Basement, Old Building.
